CHICAGO FACES FEAR OUTBREAK GREAT LABOR WAR

Apparently on Eve of One of Greatest Industrial Upheavals in History.

MUCH DISORDER IN CITY

Three Persons Seriously Injured and Two Will Probably Die.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, April 27.-With 5,100 teamsters on strike, with constant accessions to their number and with the express determination of the Employers' Associntion to take a firm stand for the "open shop" and to fight the Teamsters Union to the bitter end, Chicago tonight, to all appearances, stands on the eve of one of the greatest industrial upheavals in her history.

There was rioting in various parts of the city to-day, despite the strong guards of policemen and the numbers of private detectives hired by the Employers' Association to protect their wagons During the clashes three persons were settously injured, two of whom will probably die.

The declaration was made last night by members of the Employers' Association that they would promptly discharge any teamster who refused to hauf goods to or from Montgomery Ward and Company, brought out the teamsters in many down-town mercantile houses dur-

Subscriptions were taken during the day to strengthen the Employers' Teaming Company, the weapon with which the Teamsters' Union is to be rought, and to-night President Mark Morton, of the company, who is a brother of Paul Morton, of the navy, had $1,000,000 at his disposal.

HARGIS DECLARES 4 HE IS NOT-GUILTY

(By Associated Press ) LEXINGTON, KY., April 27,—Judge Parker interrupted the Hargis murder trial to-day long enough to hear an affidavit setting forth that Breck Combs, acting county judge of Breathitt county and a friend of Judge Hargis, had cursed and abused "Anse" White, a State witness, cailing him a liar and threatening him. Judge Hargis then resumed his testimony under cross-examination for the State, after being on the stand for two days and a half. At the close of his testimony, Hargis asked the courtyto allow him to make a statement to the jury. Raising himself to his full height, Judge Hargis faced the jury and exclaimed as he pointed to his wife and daughter sitting near: "I just want to say to these twelve men that I am not guilty of this chârge and if I were, I would nover again ask that women to call me husband or trial to-day long enough to hear an affi-charge and if I were, I would never again ask that women to call me husband or that child to call me father."

Attorneys for the State Instantly objected and the court excluded the statement from the jury except the statement that he was not guilty.

self. Mr. Cronk was so weak during the winter that he was not expected to survive.

Of sturdy Dutch stock. Hiram Cronk was born in the town of Frankport. Herkimer county, N. Y., and soon after was taken by his parents to Wright Settlement, near Rome. There for ten years the family lived, Hiram attending school and "doing chores" about the farm. From there they moved to the vicinity of his present residence, where since 1837 he has lived. The fertile farm of 118 acres he now possesses was a wilderness when he built his cabin from which has been evolved the snug houe in which has been evolved the snug houe in which he and his only living daughter, Mrs. Sarah A. Rowley-she past 80—have habitation. When Hiram Cronk was born Thomas Jefferson was President of the United States, John Marshall Secretary of State, Oliver Wolcott Secretary of the Treasury and Samuel Dexter Secretary of War. Although but a mere boy, his spirit was aroused over the issues of the second war with Great Britain, and, joining his father and brother, he wont to Sackett's Harbor as an enlisted man' in the army serving for 100 days. So young and slight was he that the other soldlers loked with him ang advised his father to pick him up and carry him to a place of safety. Their jesting was soon turned to safety.
